And, action!

Jacques Clifford

The University of Johannesburg (UJ) kicked-off the first of three consecutive FNB Varsity Cup home games with an emphatic win over the Shimlas at UJ Stadium in Westdene.

UJ (wearing the orange kit) outran the men from Bloemfontein scoring six tries to one in beating the visitors 44 - 8. Their victory assured they kept their playoff hopes alive come the semi-finals on March 23. UJ take on Tukkies at UJ Stadium on March 9 at 6.45pm, before playing their final league game against the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University (NMMU) in Port Elizabeth on March 16.