

The UJ Faculty of Law in partnership with the UJ Library would like to invite you to meet Judge Edwin Cameron, the author of the book:

Justice: A Personal Account

Cameron worked as a human rights lawyer during apartheid and was appointed a judge to the South Africa's Constitutional court since January 2009. In his book he critically examines and defends the role of law in South Africa's continuing transition drawing on his own life experience including childhood, hardships, struggles with sexuality and stigma. He is quick to point out, "the book is not a dry, abstract lecture. I tell vivid stories."
