ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

My deep appreciation goes to various important people who have made the journey of my study possible. Dr. Mathew S. Clark, my promoter, has not only been a model scholar and teacher, but also a model person of extreme kindness in many aspects. His insightful and significant suggestions have been an extremely important guide for my study. Dr. S. J. Nortjé-Meyer, my co-promoter, has offered valuable and significant comments. My deep gratitude also goes to the committee of external readers. My special thanks goes to Dr. Wonsuk Ma who introduced me to my promoter years ago.

My deep appreciation goes to the Daejeon Foursquare Gospel Church (Dr. Rev. Seen-Ok Ahn, Dr. Young-Kwon Ahn and Dr. Yong-Nan Jeon Ahn) in Daejeon, South Korea, who has played important roles with their prayer, encouragement and financial assistance. I also appreciate the prayers of Christian brothers and sisters in the Philippines and South Africa, where we have served the Lord together during my family's missionary work.

My special gratitude goes to Mrs. Sharon N. Phillips who spent many days to improve the English expressions of my study. My promoter mentioned above also spent extra time to help me in this area.

This study would never have been possible without the loving support and encouragement of my wife, Woon-Kyong. My wonderful son and daughter have brought immeasurable happiness to us. My special thanks goes to my parents for their prayer.

To God alone be the glory!
