SECTION A: DEVELOPMENT THEORIES

ANSWER ANY TWO OF THE FOLLOWING ESSAY QUESTIONS.

1. Provide an in-depth discussion of the impact of globalisation in development studies. Use examples to strengthen your arguments. [25]

   OR

2. What is the post-modern critique of development studies? Provide an in-depth discussion, using examples to illustrate your points. [25]

   OR

3. Discuss the differences between free trade and fair trade, including their implications for development in Africa. Use examples to elucidate your points. [25]

   OR

4. Discuss and explain the impact of Information and Communications Technologies (ICTs) in developing countries. Use examples to substantiate your claims. [25]

Total Section A: 50 marks
SECTION B: DEVELOPMENT POLICIES

ANSWER ANY TWO OF THE FOLLOWING ESSAY QUESTIONS.

5. The South African agro-food industry is one of the most productive globally but is not without its own inherent problems. Critically analyse this industry and indicate what could be done to make it more equitable and sustainable. [25]

6. The Child Support Grant is an important support to many poor households and children in South Africa. Critically describe what happens to this grant once it is paid out. In your answer, concentrate on the following:
   a. Teenage and young adult sexual behaviour;
   b. The use this grant is made of;
   c. The context of its availability, and;
   d. Sources of knowledge we have on the use of this grant. [25]

OR

7. Critically describe and analyse how the NDP approaches policy-making for human settlement. In your answer concentrate on the following:
   a. The sources of information the NDP draws on in formulating its recommendations, and;
   b. The role ordinary people can play in policy-making and implementation. [25]

OR

8. Critically analyse and describe South Africa’s current health system. In your answer, refer to the following:
   a. What scope is there for citizen action to change the health system;
   b. What role the state should play in further transforming this system, and;
   c. What role the market can play in transforming the system. [25]

Total Section B: 50 marks

TOTAL PAPER = 100 marks