ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to record my sincere thanks to the following people without whose help this study could not have been possible:

- My wonderful supervisor, Dr. Oliphant, for her interest, help, suggestions and constructive criticism during the entire duration of this study.
- My boyfriend, George Mashapa, who helped me to record the data.
- Jacob Hokwane, my boyfriend’s friend who showed his interest in finding some of the respondents for the study.
- My aunt, Lillian Chuene, who gave me both moral and financial support in conducting this research study.
- My parents, Mr Caiphus Mbedzi and Mrs Johannah Chuene and my wonderful granny Mrs Sarah Chuene in their gratitude and support.
- Prof. Mackenzie with his wonderful support in language editing.
- Mrs. Ria Uys for the technical editing of the dissertation.

It is through their efforts and contributions that this study was possible. I will always honour and remember the aforementioned people. Although it was difficult and challenging, they gave me light, support, guidance and motivation in making this study possible.

May God bless you all!
