

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express sincere thanks to the following:-

Professor Sonja Verwey, Head of the Department of Communication at Rand Afrikaans University, whose wealth of experience and academic prowess magicked my pumpkin into a coach;

Colyn, my husband, who, in his encouragement, has acquired several new domestic capabilities;

My daughters Lesley and Judy-Ann, who closely understand my seeking of inquiry and who would, in any case, fondly support me;

Annaline Pietersen and her computer, whose joint contribution enhanced my efforts immeasurably, and the National Research Forum for their sine quo none of financial assistance.

May they each one be blessed for their patient goodwill.

And may the total effort be of good service.
