

THE THABO MBEKI I KNOW

PICADOR
AFRICA

Edited by Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu
and Miranda Strydom

“This collection presents a combination of personal and political accounts of Thabo Mbeki, his passage from youth to manhood, from political apprenticeship under Oliver Tambo to the presidency of South Africa, and his fall from that dizzy height.”

– Mahmood Mamdani

INVITATION

The University of Johannesburg's Institute for Pan-African Thought and Conversation in partnership with the UJ Library, invites you to a book launch on:

“THE THABO MBEKI I KNOW”

DATE: Thursday, 6 April 2017 | TIME: 17H00 – 18H30 | VENUE: Chinua Achebe Auditorium (6th floor), Auckland Park UJ Library, University of Johannesburg, Auckland Park Kingsway Campus, Johannesburg

This book is a collection by friends, comrades, statesmen, politicians and business associates that celebrates Africa's “Philosopher-King”. Presented here are the contributions from those who knew former President Thabo Mbeki as a young man, in South Africa and in exile, and those who encountered him as a statesman and worked alongside him as an African leader.

This book is edited by Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu and Miranda Strydom; with forewords by Professor Mahmood Mamdani and Honourable Judge Barney Afako.
