

INVITATION

UJ Division of Student Life and Governance and the UJ Library in partnership with Jacana Media, invite you to a discussion with Lindiwe Hani on her book:

Being Chris Hani's Daughter

ABOUT THE BOOK: In this intimate and revealing memoir, Lindiwe faces her demons, not just those that haunted her through her addiction but, with the courage that comes with sobriety, she comes face-to-face with her father's two killers. The book reveals the exclusive meetings she had with both Clive Derby-Lewis before he succumbed to cancer in November 2016, and Janusz Walus, who is still serving a life sentence for her father's assassination. It also includes extracts of the last interview with Chris Hani by historian Luli Callinicos.

ABOUT THE AUTHORs: Award-winning journalist Melinda Ferguson is the best-selling author of the addiction trilogy: Smacked, Hooked and Crashed. Her publishing imprint MFBooks Joburg was the recipient of the 2016 Sunday Times Alan Paton Award for Rape: A South African Nightmare by Dr Pumla Dineo Gqola. Lindiwe Hani has worked in the communications field for the better part of ten years. Her greatest accomplishment is being a mother to her daughter, Khaya. This is her first book.
