4. GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THE TENDER

a. The RAU reserves the right to accept a tender in whole or in part and is not compelled to accept the tender with the lowest price. The RAU may accept a tender in principle, subject to further negotiations between the parties regarding the tender and the conditions of the contract, in which case a contract only comes into existence when the parties have reached agreement (concensus) concerning the further negotiations and when it is contained in writing.

b. The basis on which tenders are evaluated is attached in Appendix B.

c. The RAU reserves the right to give preference to unconditional tenders and/or tenders of which the qualifications are the most acceptable to the RAU.

d. Acceptance of the tender will take place in writing or by means of an official order by the RAU in favour of the successful tenderer.

e. All prices must include VAT (where applicable).

f. All prices must be shown in South African Rand for completed working units.

g. Unless otherwise required in the specifications in Appendix A to this document, the prices quoted in this tender must include all transport costs, installation costs and delivery costs up to the requirements point of delivery on the premises of the RAU.

h. Any amendment to this tender can only take place with the written permission of both parties hereto.

i. In the case of contracts other than year contracts and service contracts, the tender prices are fixed for the duration of the contract.

j. In the case of year contracts and service contracts the basis on which [a future] price increase may be requested (if applicable) must be submitted with this tender.

k. Increases in prices will only be paid after they have been approved in writing by the RAU.

l. Invoices on which non-approved, increased prices appear, will only be paid at the original accepted price.

m. The following provisions will apply in respect of samples:

m.1. Where samples are required in terms of the specifications as contained in Appendix A, the samples must be sent or delivered to the office of the Head of Purchasing, Services Block (Stores), RAU, Hampton Avenue, Auckland Park prior to the closing date and closing time of the tender. Transport costs and/or delivery costs must be paid in advance by the tenderer.

m.2. Samples must be marked clearly with the tender number, item number and the name of the tenderer. Upon the delivery of the sample, a sample receipt form will be issued by the purchaser that has to be retained by the tenderer in order to have the samples

m.3. Samples in respect of tenders that are accepted, will be retained by the RAU until the contract has been properly executed. Samples in respect of tenders that are not accepted, will be kept for a period of sixty days after the date of acceptance of a tender. Unsuccessful tenderers who wish to have the samples returned to them, may collect them between 08h00 and 16h30 on weekdays, except during university holidays and public holidays at the office of the Head of Purchasing, Services Block (Stores), RAU, Hampton Avenue, Auckland Park, within sixty days after the date of acceptance of the tender. Samples will be returned to unsuccessful tenderers upon the return of the original sample receipt forms issued upon the delivery of the samples. All samples that had not been collected within sixty days as from the date of acceptance of the tender, will be sold by the RAU for the account of the RAU.

m.4. In cases where samples are required but not handed in by the tenderers in time, the tender concerned may be disregarded.

m.5. Goods that are handed in as samples, must be of the same kind as the goods listed in the specifications and tenders and, unless otherwise specified, goods must as far as possible be new and not previously used, not even for demonstration purposes.

m.6. If the RAU deems it necessary, the RAU may test the sample concerned or have it tested. Any costs in this regard will be recovered from the tenderer. Where such goods do not comply with the specifications and requirements, the RAU reserves the right to reject the tender.

n. Tenderers must submit all relevant technical information on goods that are tendered for with the tender as specifically required in section 16 of this document. The technical information that is required, includes but is not limited to the following:

n.1. Comprehensive installation, operating and maintenance instructions.

n.2. List of available parts with description, size/capacity and part number.

n.3. Wiring and/or circuit diagrams.

n.4. All technical information must be submitted in one or more of the following formats:
   - 35mm microfilm
   - mounted on labelled cards for use with a MERKUR 2S slide projector
   - A4 format
   - A3 format.

6. CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO SUCCESSFUL TENDERERS

a. Unless it appears otherwise from the context
   (i) goods in this document mean movable goods, services, repair work, construction work and maintenance that must be provided in terms of the tender;
   (ii) successful tenderer means the person or undertaking to whom the tender has been granted and with whom a contract has been concluded;
   (iii) Principal Agent or Project Leader means a person appointed by the RAU to supervise the execution of the contract and to perform the functions stated herein.

b. Unless it appears otherwise from the context, the singular includes the plural and vice versa.

c. Words indicating the male gender include the female gender.

d. Tenderers must keep sufficient stock, since goods may be ordered from a tenderer at short notice.

e. In the case of repair work and maintenance in respect of buildings and equipment, the following provisions will apply:
e.1. Completed work must be properly certified as such by the Principal Agent or Project Leader on a payment certificate, supported by a written valuation of the completed work.
e.2. The RAU will retain an amount equal to 10% of the total contract price until 90% of the performance in terms of the contract has been completed to the satisfaction of the RAU and certified as such by the Principal Agent or Project Leader. Thereafter, the retention amount will be reduced to 5% of the total contract price, which amount will be retained for a period of two months after completion of the repair work or maintenance work. No interest will be paid by the RAU in respect of any retention fee that is retained.

f. Tenderers who tender for projects that take place over a period of three months or longer, or in respect of delivery of performance on a continuous basis including year contracts and service contracts, or in respect of construction work, or repair work and maintenance in respect of buildings and equipment, may be subjected to continuous performance assessment by the Principal Agent or Project Leader.

g. If a written date of completion has been agreed upon, whether or not such date is contained in this tender document, or confirmed by both parties at any stage during the operation of the written contract, 2.5% of the total contract price per month or part thereof during which the work is not completed to the satisfaction of the RAU will be treated and regarded as a penalty and will be forfeited.

h. Except in the case of construction work, repair work to and maintenance in respect of buildings and equipment, and landscaping, payment in respect of successful tenders will take place on 30 days terms after receipt of a monthly statement or similar document, subject to satisfactory performance by the successful tenderer, and subject to continuous performance assessment as referred to in section 6.f. where applicable.

i. Successful tenderers carry the full responsibility for the safety of their staff, material and equipment on the premises of the RAU.

j. The work methods of successful tenderers must be in accordance with recognised standard practice and comply with SABS procedures and codes where applicable.

k. Successful tenderers and their staff will be subject to the traffic rules of the RAU.

l. Successful tenderers must comply with all applicable legal rules, statutory provisions and regulations of local authorities.

m. Work areas on the premises of the RAU where successful tenderers work, must be cleaned on a daily basis if it overlaps with an area of other activities of the RAU and successful tenderers must remove all refuse from the premises or arrange for it to be done at their own cost.

n. Successful tenderers are, in addition to k above, responsible to ensure that:

   n.1 all equipment and/or apparatus that is supplied fully comply with the requirements of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 of 1993

   n.2 all tools and/or equipment that are used in the process of activities fully comply with the requirements of the above act n.3 all staff in his service will at all times act within the framework of this Act.

o. In the case of year contracts, service contracts, construction contracts, contracts for repair work and maintenance in respect of buildings and equipment and projects that are successfully tendered for that continue over a period of three months or longer, successful tenderers are compelled at all times to provide in full for All Risk Insurance that indemnifies the RAU against all claims and risks that may arise from the execution of the contract by the contractor or contractors. Proof of this must be submitted without delay after award of the tender, but in any event before the execution of the contract commences.

p. All goods for delivery must be packaged in such a way that they are delivered in an undamaged condition.

q. If any after-sales service in terms of section 13, or repair work and maintenance in terms of section 15, forms part of the tender and the contract between the parties, such after-sales service, or repair work, or maintenance must take place within 48 hours after the request to that effect was made by the RAU. If it is not possible, or if the goods are taken to the workshop of the successful tenderer or elsewhere, a replacement of the same quality and specification must be provided on loan without delay at no extra charge, if so required, until the after-sales service, or repair work, or maintenance has been completed and the goods have been returned to the RAU. If the successful tenderer fails to deliver the after-sales service, or repair work, or maintenance as set out in the contract, the RAU may, without prejudice to any other rights, request another contractor to supply the after-sales service, or repair work, or maintenance and to recover the cost from the successful tenderer.

r. In the case of delivery of goods, the risk for destruction, damage or deterioration in value of the goods is only transferred to the RAU upon physical and actual delivery of the goods to the RAU Stores on the RAU campus, or to such other physical location as may be ordered by the RAU.

s. In the case of construction contracts, repair work to and maintenance of immovable property and landscaping the following special provisions apply:

s.1 The contractual relationship between the parties is, subject to clause s.2 below, regulated by the standard form contract of the South African Association of Quantity Surveyors with the title “Form of Contract for Housing and Minor Works” dated April 1994, which contract is supplementary to, and must be read together with, the conditions, terms and provisions of this tender document.

s.2 The provisions of the “Form of Contract for Housing and Minor Works”, and the conditions, terms and provisions of the tender document must as far as possible be reconciled, but in a case of conflict the Contract for Housing and Minor Works enjoys preference except in the following cases:

s.2.2 Clause 16 of the “Form of Contract for Housing and Minor Works” does not apply and is replaced by clause y below.

s.2.3 Clause 17 of the “Form of Contract for Housing and Minor Works” is subject to clause z below.

s.2.4 Clause e above shall enjoy preference to clause 9 of the “Form of Contract for Housing and Minor Works”.

T. If the successful tenderer fails to perform any of his obligations in terms of the contract, the RAU may cancel the contract, with retention of any legal remedies that it may otherwise have.

u. The RAU is allowed to destroy any documents submitted by an unsuccessful tenderer after three months from submission.
v. The South African law will apply to the relationship between the parties and the contract, and the South African courts will, subject to clause z, have jurisdiction in any dispute between the parties.

w. Subject to clause z the parties agree to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court but reserve the right to institute any action in the High Court, in which event the Witwatersrand local division shall have jurisdiction.

x. The parties choose as their respective domicilium citandi et executandi for purposes of service of summons, the addresses stated in sections 2f and 7c, and for delivery of notices, the addresses stated in sections 2e and 7b.

y. The conditions, terms and provisions of the tender document, and any other contract or document referred to by the tender document, constitute the entire contract between the parties and no amendment, novation or cancellation (except on the grounds of breach of contract as referred to in clause t above) will be valid unless it is in writing and signed by all parties.

z. If any dispute arises between the RAU and the successful tenderer, or between the Principal Agent/Project Leader and the successful tenderer, the dispute is referred to a mediator jointly appointed by the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon a mediator, or if the mediation is not successful, the dispute is referred for arbitration. The arbitrator is appointed by the chairperson of the Association of Arbitrators of Southern Africa. The arbitration is conducted in accordance with the rules of the Association of Arbitrators of Southern Africa, and the ruling of the arbitrator is final. This clause shall not prevent any party to exercise its rights in terms of the contract and in terms of law where no bona fide dispute exists.

aa. No postponement, relaxation, indulgence or concession by the RAU towards the successful tenderer after the conclusion of the contract, and no failure by the RAU to act or to enforce its rights in a particular case, will be regarded as a waiver of rights by the RAU, or can by means of estoppel or otherwise be used against the RAU.

bb. The successful tenderer shall at all times be independent of the RAU for all purposes and in respect to this contract and shall not be regarded as an employee, agent or partner of the RAU for any purpose whatsoever.

cc. It is specifically recorded that the tenderer shall render his service independent to RAU and that the tenderer is not a labour broker as intended in Schedule 4 of the Income Tax Act No 58 of 1962 and that the RAU shall accordingly not be obliged to withhold any employee tax from the consideration payable to the tenderer and to pay it over to the Receiver of Revenue.

dd. If the Commissioner of Inland Revenue determines that any employees tax have to be deducted from the consideration, RAU shall be entitled to deduct any such employee tax from the consideration and the tenderer indemnifies RAU hereby against any claim by any third party including the Commissioner of Inland Revenue with respect to such a claim for any employee tax which was not deducted.
