ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to my God for making it possible for me to go so far.

I am also grateful to the following people and institutions:

My late grandfather and grandmother, Josiah Mokotedi and Rosinah Ditšhwedi Shole, who lovingly brought me up while my mother was working tirelessly in Lichtenburg as a domestic worker.

My mother, Elizabeth Motlhopegi Shole, my in-laws and the entire family for their love, care and support.

My uncle, Zacharia Taitai Shole, for his financial assistance when I was a student at Hebron Training College.

My cousin, Professor JS Shole, for making it possible for me to access UNISA library and for the encouragement.

Dr Saul Pelle, head of SABC-Africa, for providing me with almost everything during difficult times at Hebron Training College

My neighbour, Gaborekwe R. Khutsoane, for encouraging me to register for MEd,

My colleague, Mrs H Metcalf, for proof reading this document.

The University of Johannesburg for financial support.

My supervisor, Dr PJ du Plessis and co-supervisor Mr TS Hlongwane of the University of Johannesburg, for their friendly and appropriate guidance throughout this project.

Professors, CK Moloi, BR Grobelaar, R Mestry, C Loock, TC Bishoff and Dr I Hariparsad of the University of Johannesburg, for guiding us through the first year coursework.

Fellow students and colleagues, Muneep Omarjee and Walter Makaota, for the teamwork and unselfish sharing of information and resources.

My daughter, Kelebogile, for the encouragement whilst spending sleepless nights with me on the computer. 'Daddy, SGBs again?'

My son, Odirile, for assisting with the household duties and sacrificing part of his study and leisure time.

My wife, Dikeledi, for her continuous spiritual and financial support.

The Regional Chief Director, Mr ER Gradwell for granting me the permission to interview the SGB members.

The Site Managers of the selected schools for assisting with the organization that led to the success of the interviews.

The SGB parent and educator members who participated in the focus group interviews.

I am dedicating this work to the parents who willingly serve as SGB members in South African schools. Also, to the first School Governance team in the North West Province under the capable leadership of Mr HM Mweli whose hard work led to the establishment of the first democratic structures in our schools.
